

About Mela

As a professional Vocalist and Voiceover Artist, I won the lottery when it comes to dream jobs. I get to be a voice actor and vocalist for film, television, narration, and games. You might have heard my voice on a favorite sound track, in a favorite commercial, animated or live action series, or game franchise -including Lifeline in Apex Legends, Jade for Mortal Kombat 11, Imperial Pilot – Star Wars Squadrons, Tikki in Miraculous Ladybug and Kikimora in The Owl House for Disney.

I've got a new single with Multi-Platinum Producer Keith Harris, as well as some super exciting roles coming out in 2023 with Disney, Nickelodeon, Cartoon Network, Amazon, and Netflix. I cannot wait to share them with you.

My other passions include quantum mechanics, baking, hiking, history, reading, maths & application, learning new perspectives, as well as volunteering for my favorite charities.

Remember – No matter what the day brings, You Matter, You Mean Something, and you CAN Make a Difference. Find out how valuable you are by helping others in your community or donate time or money to one of my favorite inspirational charities
